

PORTFOLIO AND REFERENCE LIST :

The company FORING D.O.O. was founded in 1992, initially as design and engineering office. During these 31 years of existence, the majority of the company's activity has become the performance of all steel construction positions at industrial and commercial facilities, mainly in the sphere of building construction. We are recognized on the market in the field of execution and design, primary of industrial and commercial buildings, with an emphasis on steel structures and special steel structures (silos, tanks, antenna pillars, belt conveyors, bridges cranes, objects of non-standard spans, etc.). Also, in addition to the construction and design of steel structures, we specialize in the construction and design of: Roofing and covering with industrial sandwich panels and following sheet metal works; Mechanical thermotechnical installations. Since 2024, standards for the manufacture and assembly of metal structures EN 1090 - 2 in EXC2 version with the accompanying ISO 3834-2 welding standard have been introduced, and on that occasion, the general standard ISO 9001 was also introduced.
